Walking Worthy of God -

Godsword Godswill Onu
2015-02-28

The Word of God instructs us to walk worthy of the Lord. To walk worthy of the Lord is to think, speak, live, and act the way God wants; it is to live as God's children. The Bible says, "In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother" (1 Jn 3:10). If you want God to be pleased with you, then you have to walk worthy of Him! One way to walk worthy of God is to bear the Fruit of the Spirit in abundance. Walk as children of light, finding out what is acceptable to the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them.

When Pleasing Others Is Hurting You - David Hawkins

2010-07-01

You want to do the right thing—to take care of your family, to be a good employee, to "be there" for your friends. And you're good at it. Everyone knows they can depend on you—so they do. But are you really doing what's best for them? And what about you—are you growing? Are you happy and relaxed? Are you excited about your gifts and your calling, or do you sometimes think, "I don't even know what I want anymore." Find out why you have trouble saying no. Learn why you feel accepted only when you are producing. And finally experience the deep joy and peace that come with serving other people out of your abundance, not out of your need.

BREAK THE HABIT OF PEOPLE-PLEASING -

FRANKLIN S.R. 2021-06-07

This book will serve as a guide for establishing limits and cultivating the assertiveness required to keep them. You'll learn how to say no in any case, at home or at work, based on your beliefs. And, most of all, you'll learn how to persuade your friends and family members, employers, colleagues, and neighbors to respect your limits and acknowledge your personal integrity.

Working in Us What Is Pleasing to Him - Paul Nordman 2020-12-08

God has a vision for us: when Christ returns, we will be like Him. He brings us to this vision-state through a process called transformation. What does this look like? What might we expect on our journey from salvation to glory? How is the Spirit of God changing us into the image of Christ? Through the lives of twelve Biblical figures-people just like us-

Working in Us What Is Pleasing to Him guides us through transformation's twists and turns, its welcome progress and even our seeming setbacks along the way. Our predecessors' past illumines our path, for the God who guided them is still working in His people today. As in his first book, Christ in Me, author Paul Nordman employs an accessible, engaging writing style to teach Biblical truths in digestible bites. In these 48 relatable teaching-reflections, you will learn from the experiences of others about the wonder of transformation into the image of Christ. We will be like Him. Paul Nordman authored his first book, Christ in Me, after retiring from executive leadership in the property-casualty insurance industry. He serves on the advisory board of The Salvation Army Columbus Area Services and is an active volunteer in Kairos Prison Ministry International, Inc. and International Friendships, Inc., a ministry to international students. Paul and his wife, Peggy, live in Columbus, Ohio, as do their son, Matthew, daughter-in-law, Gwen, and grandchildren, Abigail and Micah.

Law & Liberty: A Biblical Look at Legalism - Don Kistler 2015-03-16

The authors in this compilation address the issue of legalism from a variety of angles. John MacArthur shows, first that obedience to God is not an issue of legalism, but an issue of love. In his second chapter, he deals with the inevitable response of people who are confronted with Biblical standards, "Judge not that ye be not judged." Here MacArthur shows what our Lord meant when He said that, and shows what biblical discernment really is, that there is a vast difference between judgmental and holding people accountable to God's standards. Phil Johnson, in his first chapter, deals with Christian liberty. In his second chapter, he takes a critical look at two kinds of legalism, then explores the relationship of Christian love and Christian liberty. Joel Beeke shows that enthusiasm for God's law is not necessarily legalism. One can be zealous without being legalistic. As David wrote: "Oh, how I love Thy Law!" Bruce Bickel explains that legalism is due to a weak understanding of what Christ accomplished on the cross. Jim Elliff makes clear that legalism is an attack on unity within the Body of Christ, particularly local congregations. Ken Talbot helps us to see that legalism is inconsistent with and incompatible with the doctrine of justification by faith alone. He points out that the doctrine of "free will" leads to this dangerous position. Rick Phillips explores the relationship to loving God and obeying His law. Some today believe that love is all that matters, and that the law as a guideline to love is extinct.

Then this author shows that Biblical sanctification is the antidote to and the opposite of legalism. Steven J. Lawson shows that legalism is the result of holding to man-made traditions over the truth of God's Word. Second, he points out how dangerous and deadly a thing legalism is and why.

Necessary for Jesus - Stephen Kirkendall 2019-11-12
Stephen Kirkendall, ChFC (chartered financial consultant), has helped Christians with financial investments for many years through mortgage loans, life insurance, investments, estate planning, retirement-income planning, and wealth management. He realized early on that most Christians have serious questions about tithing, but there seemed to be no solid answers. He decided to dig deeper into the truth in the Scriptures. There are too many wolves on TV, the Internet, and YouTube. They state that pastors who talk about tithing are thieves and that tithing is unscriptural and that they're getting away with it because no one is challenging them with the full truth. Churches have broken up over tithing. There are marriages that have ended in divorce because of tithing. The real, full truth needs to come out. It is so important that God uses more than seven chapters to explain! The result is the biblically driven study Necessary for Jesus. Most Christians know what was necessary for Jesus. Seventy prophecies fulfilled. Why don't Christians know what is necessary for Jesus? Seventy rewards for helping Jesus. During his search for answers, Kirkendall knew he could honestly answer questions about money by going straight to God's teaching"the Bible. Stephen also realized that when he used the Scriptures, it had to be copy-and-paste. All Christians, especially the church teachers and leaders, need to know the full truth about tithing and how the lessons about it in the Scriptures still apply today. Giving back to God is the wisest investment Christians can make. It will not only lead to financial security but also to a completely blessed and prosperous life. Your Glorious Endeavor - Kevin Brownlee 2019-12

We occasionally ponder "What's the purpose of my life?", "Is God pleased with me?", "How can I worship God acceptably?", "Can I worship God if I can't sing?". The Bible says we've been created to glorify God and do so in all we do, but how does an ordinary workaday Christian bring glory to God? Kevin Brownlee has spent nearly 30 years researching those questions and has settled on 16 simple biblical words that answer, "How to glorify God" and define "Acceptable worship." Much more than a "how-to" book, its down-to-earth, easy to read style enlivens you with delightful stories and practical applications to your daily life. These "sweet 16" words will transform you to an abundant life of purpose, glory to God, and true worship that's well pleasing to Him! This book will also answer: How to pray so God listens. How to love your neighbor as yourself. How to increase your faith. Why God allows suffering. How to regain or maintain your integrity. How much to give to the church. How to study and even teach the Bible. All for God's glory!
